LIMITS OF SEED VITALITY.

No Truth in Stories of Germination After Thousands of Years.
"The statement is frequently made in the popular press," said Professor L. H. Pammel, government botanist, "that seeds have retained their vitality for a long time. Thus it is stated that wheat under some conditions has preserved its vitality for 50 or 100 years. It has frequently been stated that wheat taken from Egyptian monuments germinated, but in not a single case is this germination authenticated. Not a single grain taken from an ancient Egyptian sarcophagus and sown by various persons has ever been known to germinate, and the conditions for preserving the seed in these Egyptian monuments are better than in the soil. They are protected from the air and variations of temperature. The experiment which has been most talked of is that of the Count of Sternberg at Prague. He had received the grains from a trustworthy traveler, who told him that they were taken from a sarcophagus. It is said that two of these seeds germinated, but it is a well known fact that impostures are perpetrated by the people who dispose of these seeds. In some cases they have even 'tripped' corn or maize into these sarcophagi."

"Many experiments have been made, not only in this country, but in Europe, to determine the vitality of various grain seeds. Thus, barley retains its vitality better than any other cereal, and this is said to retain its vitality from eight to ten years. In the case of wheat 90 to 100 per cent germinates in from one to four years; in five to seven years, 85 to 87 per cent. In the case of rye the percentage of germination in five years dropped to 55 per cent; in seven years, 35 per cent; nine years, 13 per cent. In the case of corn, I made some experiments a few years ago to determine the vitality and found that corn which was kept in tightly closed vessels at the age of 20 years had lost all its power of germination. Experiments also indicate that corn kept even a few years became largely deteriorated and lost much of its power of germination. Even grass seeds which have been buried at some depth in the soil and in vessels tightly sealed failed to germinate after a dozen or 15 years."—Chicago Chronicle.

Kind Commendation.

The Reno Journal has been putting in hard and faithful efforts, trying to settle the Reno peace officers to the point of abating the tough characters in the place. While the Journal is being howled at for telling how bad things are, it is doing a needed work which sooner or later will purify Reno's moral atmosphere.—Lays

He Never Came Back.

A week ago, Monday, a stranger, short, thickset, with heavy black beard, hired a horse and saddle from R. W.
Parry and set out for the north. He said he was going up to Peavine to prospect.

When he did not return that night a search party was sent out, but the horse and rider are yet as undetected as the philosopher's stone. Either they rolled into a gulch and were killed or another offense, that people were lynched for in early days, was committed.

Reported at Death's Door.

At a late hour last night information was received that J. L. McFarlin was at death's door, and it was feared he would not survive the night.

Mr. McFarlin has been in poor health for some time. He was taken below a short time ago, but as the change did not benefit him it was thought best to bring him back, since when he has been slowly sinking.

Mr. McFarlin was one of the first settlers in Reno, and has always been an industrious and enterprising man, and the community will suffer a severe loss should he pass from this life.

Methodist Conference.

Last evening the annual conference of the Methodist church met in the new brick edifice on Sierra street.
There was a large attendance.

Rev. G. C. King of Virginia preached the opening sermon of the conference, after which a reception was tendered to the chief guest of honor, Bishop J.
W. Hamilton.

Meetings will be held to-day at 8:30 and 9 a. m., and at 7:30 p. m. Bishop Hamilton will deliver a lecture. His subject will be from a field with practically no limit, "Events of the Century."

Half Fares.

Secretary J. H. Dennis of the Democratic State Central committee has received a communication from the General Passenger Agent of the Southern Pacific granting his request that half fare rates be allowed to delegates to the Democratic State convention.
Delegates pay full fare to Reno, but upon presentation of certificates from the secretary of the convention get free tickets for return. The same on the
V. & T. and C. & C.

The Law's Delays.

It is now some months since a certain vagrancy matter was brought to the attention of the Justice Court.
There seems to be no good reason for this long delay in trying the case.

EXHIBITS
OF STOCK

Some of the Interesting Animals To Be Seen at the Fair.

John Sparks always has a splendid exhibit at the State fair, but this time he will exceed his former efforts. He will show his Alamo stock of Herefords, including Armour Rose, the $2,500 halifer.

To day building operation will begin upon the stockade for the buffaloes.
It is expected that these members of an almost extinct race will attract great interest.

Mr. Sparks' importation of English prize-winning Herefords have left Quebec, and will probably arrive in time for the fair.

been slowly sinking.

Mr. McFarlin was one of the first settlers in Reno, and has always been
an industrious and enterprising man,
and the community will suffer a severe
loss should he pass from this life.

of the Methodist church met in the new brick edifice on Sierra street.
There was a large attendance.

the opening sermon of the conference,
after which a reception was tendered
to the chief guest of honor, Bishop J.
W. Hamilton.

and 9 a. m., and at 7:30 p. m. Bishop Hamilton will deliver a lecture. His

tically no limit, "Events of the Century."

Half Fares.

Secretary J. H. Dennis of the Democratic State Central committee has received a communication from the General Passenger Agent of the Southern Pacific granting his request that
half fare rates be allowed to delegates
to the Democratic State convention.
Delegates pay full fare to Reno, but
upon presentation of certificates from
the secretary of the convention get free tickets for return. The same on the
V. & T. and C. & C.

The Law's Delays.

It is now some months since a certain vagrancy matter was brought to the attention of the Justice Court.
There seems to be no good reason for this long delay in trying the case.

28th. Applications must be in by September 8th.

It was reported last evening that Will Maxwell, who has been ill with typhoid fever had suffered a relapse and was very low. We hope the report is exaggerated and that the young man will soon be able to resume his duties as clerk for O. Novakovich, where he has been employed for several years.

Many Things
Are Meant

By many dealers who claim to handle groceries. When they advertise GOOD GROCERIES no mention is made of PRICE. When price is mentioned QUALITY IS OVER-LOOKED. Again, sometimes they dwell on the virtues of a LARGE STOCK. In this case no claim is made to carrying FRESH GOODS.

We Preach the Three Main Virtues of Groceries—

Quality
Quantity
Price

They are mentioned in their regular order and the happy combination is causing hosts of pleased patrons at
